

Debunking Deportation Myths

March 5, 2019 | 8:30 AM – 4:00 PM
Student Community Center , UC Davis

Research Insight: Socio-Economic Consequences of Deportation and Detention

9:00 AM – 10:30 AM

Philip Luck
University of Colorado, Denver
Deportations and Employment

Giovanni Peri
UC Davis
Deportations and Crime

Caitlin Patler
UC Davis
Detentions and Families

Immigrant Narratives: The “Humanizing Deportation” Project

10:45 AM – 12:30 PM

Robert Irwin
UC Davis
Moderator

José Israel Ibarra
El Colegio de la Frontera Norte
Cultural and Psychosocial Impacts of Deportation in Tijuana

Luis Rodolfo Morán Quiroz
Enrique Martínez Curiel
Universidad de Guadalajara
Cultural and Psychosocial Impacts of Deportation in Rural Jalisco

Maricruz Castro Ricalde
Tecnológico de Monterrey
Accommodations of Deported Migrants: Contributions from Civil Society, Mexico City

Abraham Paniagua Vázquez
Universidad Autónoma de Chihuahua
*Accommodations of Deported Migrants:
Contributions from Government Agencies,
Ciudad Juárez*

Round Table: “Humanizing” Narratives and the Legal Reality of Deportations

1:00 PM – 3:00 PM

Leticia Saucedo
Professor of Law, UC Davis

Emma Sánchez
Michael J. Paulsen
Dreamers’ Moms International

Krsna Avila
Staff attorney, Immigrant Legal
Resource Center, San Francisco

Meena Visvanathan
Law Student, UC Davis

Araceli Martinez-Olguin
Attorney, National Immigration
Law Center

Reception to follow

Registration: migrationcluster.ucdavis.edu/events