

CEMIR AND UC DAVIS WORKSHOP ON ADVANCES IN MIGRATION RESEARCH

May 1-2, 2015 | 2203 SS&H, UC Davis

FRIDAY, MAY 1

FIRST SESSION: HIGH SKILLED MIGRANTS

8:45 AM – 12:00 PM (NOON)

The Effects of Skilled Immigration on Firms: Evidence from H1B Visa Lotteries

Adam Isen, U.S. Department of Treasury

The Effects of Foreign Skilled Immigrants on US Natives: Evidence from the 2007 and 2008 H1B Lotteries

Giovanni Peri, UC Davis

Which Peers Matter? The Relative Impacts of Collaborators, Colleagues, and Competitors

Kirk Doran, University of Notre Dame

SECOND SESSION: MIGRATION AND LABOR MARKETS

1:15 PM – 4:30 PM

International Migration of Couples

Panu Poutvaara, University of Munich and Ifo Institute

Internal Migration in Dual Labor Markets

Joan Llull, MOVE, Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona, and Barcelona GSE

Immigrants Equilibrate Local Labor Markets: Evidence from the Great Recession

Brian Cadena, University of Colorado Boulder

SATURDAY, MAY 2

THIRD SESSION: EDUCATION AND NETWORKS

9:00 AM – 12:15 PM

The Impact of International Students on U.S. Graduate Education

Kevin Shih, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute

Granting Birthright Citizenship- A Door Opener for Immigrant Children's Educational Participation and Success?

Judith Saurer, Ifo Institute, Munich

Migrant Networks, Search Frictions and Labor Market Outcomes

Gabriel Felbermayr, University of Munich and Ifo Institute